THE LARGER GRAIN BORER STORY...
A South African perspective

By
Marianna Theyse
National Plant Protection Organisation of South Africa
National Department of South Africa
LARGER GRAIN BORER - Prostephanus truncatus

LGB becoming a real threat to emerging farmers close to the South African land borderline.

National Action Plan by the National Department of Agriculture

- Overview
- Awareness on community level
LARGER GRAIN BORER - Prostephanus truncatus

National Action Plan Overview:

- Objectives
- Theme
- Activities
LARGER GRAIN BORER - Prostephanus truncatus

- Implementation and awareness plans in 1998
- Media and methods
- Emerging farmers emerge as major concern in the LGB context.
LARGER GRAIN BORER - Prostephanus truncatus

- 1999 - First LGB trapped in South Africa
- Enhanced awareness actions
- 2000 - National LGB Coordinating Committee
- 2001 - Post harvest survey and national workshop
- 2002 - Improved storage structures advocate
LARGER GRAIN BORER - Prostephanus truncatus

LGB Community programme in Malekutu:

- Provincial Department of Agriculture
- Extension personnel
- Community
- Methods of communication